

Gust Soteropulos

*Senior Vice President, General Manager
Webcor Builders*

Gust D. Soteropulos serves as Senior Vice President and General Manager at Webcor Builders. Webcor is one of the California's largest commercial general contractors with annual revenues of over two billion dollars. In his role Gust oversees Webcor's Southern California region, including offices in Los Angeles and San Diego, ensuring they are efficient and effective. As the Southern California leader and member of the Webcor's Executive Committee, Gust upholds Webcor's vision and purpose, builds culture, provides appropriate resources, oversees and delivers the region's performance, all while managing its processes, procedures, systems, and standards.

Gust has been a key figure in Webcor Builders successfully delivering many signature projects including the Silver Lake Reservoir Replacement, Hotel & Residences at LA Live!, the W Hollywood, Metropolis, and most recently the New Century Plaza.

Gust has over 30 years of leadership in the engineering and construction industry, of which over 20 have been spent in California. Prior to joining Webcor, Gust spent over a decade as a Vice President at Swinerton Builders and 16 years with CB&I, an international energy infrastructure focused company.
