

Clint Schelbitzki

General Director, Public Affairs - California and Pacific Northwest Union Pacific Railroad

Clint Schelbitzki is the general director - Public Affairs for Union Pacific Railroad located in Roseville, CA. In this position, he leads a team that represents America's largest class one freight railroad before the legislatures and communities in California, Oregon, and Washington. Prior to this role, Clint was general director - Network Development where he was responsible for leading franchise growth opportunities, public-private partnership project development, and strategic initiatives across Union Pacific's Western Region.

Clint started with Union Pacific Railroad in 2005 in the Marketing and Sales department where he first managed a wide range of industrial products customers then serving as a shipment quality manager in Texas. In 2008, Clint became Union Pacific's Director - Public Affairs for Oklahoma and Texas where he managed governmental affairs and was responsible for the railroad's external relationships at the city, county and state levels.

Clint holds a Bachelors of Business Administration in Marketing from the University of North Texas and an MBA from the University of Houston. Clint and his wife, Sarah, have two young boys Lincoln and Logan.